When a new law or practice of race hatred is placed on the statute books anywhere, those of us who believe in the future of the black man are going to speak to the people that they go forward. When a mob burns a man at the stake and there is no government to take care of the people, we go forward.

JEFFERSON CITY, MO.

Quit a band of gayeteers left Jefferson City Friday morning, July 6th, at 6:30 for Grey's picnic camp (Scott's Station), where they whittled the hours away jovially in a party picnic. The convicts amused themselves by hunting, fishing, gathering berries and various sports. The children brought to mind the vivid scenes of childhood, as they waded up and down the stream, making music with their bare feet in the splashing and lashing of the clear, sparkling water. The dinner was a rare occasion, fashioned in the old style, when we cooked with a plentiful hand, everything highly seasoned as mothers did of old. The following constituted the party: Misses Goldie Landown, Edna Landown, Mary Evans, Hattie Boser, Jessie Sutherland, Josephine Trigg, Ella May Jenkins, Odessa Hicks, Letitia Williams, Madeline Helms Duke, Mattie Moore, Anna Trigg, Sallie Hicks, A. RAILROAD MEN
HOLD MEETING

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 3.—International officers and local organizers of the pioneer organization of colored railroad men convened at their headquarters here to plan further action as to the policy to pursue in securing the Negro railway workers of the country in their jobs and rights and to have proper enforcement of the present laws of the R. R. Administration.

The International president, R. L. May, will in conference with Vice President Daniel J. Davis of McGraw, Ariz. representing southwestern and western, 1st Vice President C. C. Jefferson of Savannah, Ga., 2nd Vice President J. A. Ross of New York, Pullman Porters field organizer, 3rd Vice President A. B. Brown of St. Louis, Philadelphia; 4th Vice President J. Field Organizer; Alex. Jones, Florence, N. C.; Walter Jones, Sanford, Fla.; L. L. Benjamin, Richmond, Va.

The presidents of a score of Eastern locals will be in attendance. These men represent Railroad Men International Benevolent Industrial Association, chartered five years ago by the State of Illinois. The outstanding feature of the war period in Negro labor circles is the series of successful fights made by the association for colored railroad employees.

By a masterful plan, the president first won "equal pay for equal service" from the P. & W. Railway Commissioner and Director General McKidd. Later International No. 12 and succeeded in securing the assistance of a supplement No. 12 beat the roads in their drive for a review and a different ruling. The many colored headed men receiving as much as a thousand dollars a back pay. All increases to Pullman and dining car men resulted from the efforts instigated by this Association, and the Association is, in fact, a federation of all efforts of colored R. R. workers under the leadership of a capable vice president, elected from the particular craft. While the Association now has many thousand members in different states, the object of the present conference is to reform the lines for a supreme effort to combine the many independent organizations of colored men, whose recent formation will only divide the strength of the colored railway men.

Representative M. B. Menden of Illinois will be present with a memorandum outlining the Negro railway workers views on legislation which may come before Congress affecting government control of railroads.

Attorney W. L. Houston, former Grandmaster of the Odd Fellows and for twenty years a practitioner in the District Courts is the permanent Washington representative. Hon. Jas. R. White, law partner of old Franklin D. Roosevelt, and S. A. T. Watson, R. R. Attorney General Counsel at Chicago. Mr. White recently appeared before the United States Supreme Court here for Georgia Shriners and tried the Colored Masons' case in Texas.

LINCOLN LEAGUE OF
AMER. ORGANIZED

MEMPHIS, Tenn., June 21.—The Lincoln League of America, to embrace the Negro race in the United States, having as its object the curing of the ballot to the Negro, and designed generally to further the advancement of the race, has been organized as the outgrowth of the National Negro Conference held here Monday and Tuesday.

A general convention of the league will be held in Chicago beginning September 18, 1919, at which time more definite plans of operation throughout the nation, and particularly in the South, will be worked out.

Roscoe Conklin Simmons, chairman of the conference, was elected president of the league in its present form.

The immediate efforts of the league will be directed towards the formation of subordinate state, parish or county organizations of the league. Subordinate organizations may extend to include white township and company branches. It was said.

Information on the purposes of the league and the objects sought to be obtained will be spread among the people, particularly it was said, among white people, through the effort to acquaint white people with the motives of the league will be made, delegates to the convention said, because it is to the white people of the South the appeal for different conditions for the Negro special is addressed.

In a set of resolutions adopted, the convention set forth as vital to the future welfare of the nation as well as to the Negro race itself the need of greatest cooperation between the two races.

Upholding the American government as embracing the highest ideals the resolutions recite the belief that in time all people in America will gain that freedom which is "faded to life on ancient and unfulfilling promise."

The resolution asserts the war record of the Negro soldier, contains no hint of treason or failure of duty, and the record of the race in peace as well as in war.

The resolution appeals for federal education of Negro children, calls for the removal of all barriers to the Negro migration to the North, and intervention along the religious lines, and that the Negro, which is held up as a subject for the religious of other countries, should not be left in the hands of the white people to meet the new conditions in the United States for the purpose and desire of the Negro race.

A vice president for each state in the United States was elected. Dr. V. B. Brown of Boston, Rogers for Louisiana, and P. W. Howard of Jackson, Miss., for that state. Walter Cohen of Georgia was made treasurer, and Henry Labadie Schenck of Atlanta, Ga., secretary.

The executive committee is composed of the following: Robert R. Church, Memphis, Tenn., chairman; J. T. Patterson, Alabama; Charles Stewart, New York; W. C. Houston, Missouri; J. H. Watson, Georgia; Frank R. Howard, Pennsylvania; Dr. A. A. Purvis, Indiana; George W. Hays, New York; James B. Griggs, Texas.

The local bureau, headed by P. W. Howard of Jackson, Miss., is made up, in addition, of W. H. Lewis, Boston, Mass., and Henry Johnson of Atlanta, Ga.

P. B. S. Trudick, New Orleans in construction days, governor of Louisiana for a brief period, was elected honorary president of the league.

STOP! STOP! IT IS TRUE

Thomas A. Edison helped to win the war when he invented the talking machine. It popularized good music. The great songs, which all the great artists sang their messages into the hearts of the people, inspired them with a new vision of the liberty and patriotism which they never could have had if the phonograph had not existed. When we, as people, no longer love and appreciate music, we will, as Shakespeare says, be only fit for treason, stratagems and spoils. For good piano and reasonable terms. CHAS. H. WATKINS.

NEXT WEEK AT THE BOOKER WASHINGTON
Sixth Anniversary Week
Special All Star Feature Vaudeville Show

ALL-STAR FEATURE ACT FOR ANNIVERSARY WEEK AT BOOKER WASHINGTON.

Next week is Anniversary Week at the Booker Washington Theatre and the program is planned to commemorate the event.

First Martin and Sam Gray, returning from a triumphant tour of the North, will head the bill. This clever comedy company of the "Smart Set," ranks at the top of the list of vaudeville comedies. Miss Martin, a rich, silvery voiced, graceful, beautiful and brilliant. Mr. Gray possesses a unique bass and is a good comedian.

Others on the bill will be Julian Costello, the exotic impersonator; Elvira Johnson, Queen of the Stroll; and Langster Bros. to telephone "Son of a Gun."

This combination will undoubtedly offer the B.W. patrons a show of the highest order.

"MY OLD KENTUCKY HOME," BY BOWMAN'S COTTON BLOSSOMS. WINS BIG APPLAUSE.

Heidi Bowman's Cotton Blossoms are a unique, original, up-to-date with their new comedy. "My Old Kentucky Home" at the Booker Washington Theatre this week. The play is primarily a succession of specialities running in fits through popular songs, dances and comedy, purely as an entertainment for "Old Black Joe." There is a lively song and dance opening by the company. A love story of ford much comedy through the introduction of a raker. Among the song numbers are "Everybody Shime Now," "My Old Kentucky Home," "Old Black Joe," "Leadin' Up the Mandy Lane" and a new little "Dale Le Roy White keeps up the fun with his erratic antics. Bowman does well as the raker and after "Old Black Joe," the chorus work is harmonious and the entire company appears to advantage. The engagement will close Sunday night.

The "Old Time Quartette" consisting of Conley Johnson, Goodbar and Turner is at the Grand, and will play a couple of weeks at this vicinity.

JAZZLAND WILL OPEN MONDAY

"Jazzland," the big amusement palace at 2216-18 Market street, will be opened Monday night, and the public is due one of the most delightful amusements ever presented in the city. The beautiful place, richly decorated in red and white, resembles a grander cafe. The artist's decorations help to add a fairyland touch. The big hardwood dance pavilion extends the entire length of the building.

The admission will be six cents. Each patron will receive a double ticket, one for admission and a coupon which will be good for one dance. The checkroom is at the left. Ladies' wraps will be checked free, and gentlemen will be charged ten cents. Just inside the entrance, there is another ticket office for the sale of dance tickets. The price for these will be nine tickets for 25 cents. There are three gates to the dance floor, and after each dance the inclosure will be cleared.

There are two first and two second floor promenades. Along these are placed 75 service tables, which will be cleared for by 15 girls waitresses. There will also be two girls in distinctive uniform, who will sell cigars, tobacco, salted almonds, chewing gum, etc. Going down the left promenade to the rear, one will find special reservations for private parties, 10 to 25 cents. A handsome service bar is at the extreme rear, from which will be served the latest and best soft drinks and beverages such as: Sundaes, Sodas, Ice Cream, Sherry, Port, Champagne, Cocktails, Rickeys, Flares, and Cordials, such as Creme de Menthe, Creme de Orange, Creme de Rose, Creme de Cafe, Creme de Cocoa, also famous "Colds," the best beer product on the market, made by the Hyde Park Brewery. All these drinks are non-alcoholic and will be sold at prices ranging from 10 cents up.

At the rear of the promenade on the right, the sanitary rest room will be a battery of gas plates and gas boilers, a steam table with foods prepared to serve a host, a bar and a candy bar, a stock front box with 1200 lbs. of stock for capacity. Near this is an "Old Time Quartette" which will be served from 10 cents up.

There is also a gentlemen's toilet with valet service and a ladies' rest room, with maid service. A store at the rear will sell cigars, cigars, candy, candies, fruit, etc.

The house policeman will be Red Mitchell, who will be in uniform. At all times, under no circumstances, will any intoxicating liquors be sold in the premises, or the patron will be permitted to bring more than three to drink. No indoor or outdoor or vulgar dances will be permitted at any time.

It is intended to give the people of St. Louis a clean, wholesome, modern, inexpensive place of amusement. The place will be open every night in the year, and on Sundays and holidays. There will be a special matinee at 2 p. m. Everybody will be welcome and their invitation will be their good and hearty "Patrons." The place will be open late, as the place will be very clean. The orchestra will be a first-class band.

Coincidental with the opening date of "Jazzland" is the anniversary of the opening of the Booker Washington Theatre.
